Delores Anderson has been a friendly face for First National Bank patrons for 42 years. She's shown here with bank president Scott Campbell at her June 30 retirement celebration.

Getting to know customers the highlight of 42 years of service

BY KRYSTI MIKKONEN
Frederick Forward

What did Delores Anderson think was the greatest thing about working at First National Bank in Frederick for 42 years?

"I always enjoyed going to work and getting to visit with people there, especially when I moved up to the front," she said.

Anderson started out as a bookkeeper in the back then moved into the front as an assistant cashier, then to cashier.

"When I moved up to the front, some people were surprised to see me working there," she said. "They never saw me, so they didn't know I'd already worked there for several years."

Anderson was honored for her retirement on June 30 when a number of community people and bank owners and staff celebrated her years of service.

She particularly enjoyed and appreciated the small-town bank environment. Anderson worked for a few years at a bank in Aberdeen before moving to Frederick.

Michelle Ivy will be training in to be manager of the Community Store starting Aug. 1. Current manager Jim Ulmer will retire Aug. 30. Ivy and her fiancé, Ernie Brown, and her three children, Jordan, 19, a student at the School of Mines; Madison, 16; and Patton, 10, have moved from Aberdeen to the Frederick home most recently lived in by Irv Peldo. Ivy transitioned to retail after many years in nursing. "It's what makes me happy—talking to people," Ivy said.

The door is open

BY MR. KNUTE REIERSON
Frederick Area Superintendent

SUPERINTENDENT CORNER

It is with excitement that I write my first edition for the Frederick FYI!

Having been out of education for the past four years, I am looking forward to the beginning of school to meet all of the staff, students, parents, family, and community members.

As I am new, I am trying to meet and remember as many names as possible. For me this is important as the people are the heart and soul of a school, and in a community the size of Frederick, the school and its activities play an important role in the life of a town.

With that said, I want people to know that my door is always open to get to know people and to listen and to learn. I hope that many of you come up and introduce yourself to me to help me in my transition.

Many times people want “the new guy” to fix or change this or that. My philosophy is to learn as much as I can before any potential changes are made. I always believe in the axiom, “If it is not broken, it doesn’t need fixing.”

Speaking of fixing, many new changes await you when you return. The school board has approved some “fixing projects.” Rick (before he retired) and Sheryl Downes with Bob Bergan have been working hard to make the school clean and attractive. Many teachers have painted rooms. The flowers are growing, and the weeds have been trimmed. Some cement has been poured, and the halls and gym floor look shiny.

There are multiple new staff members eager to work with you to make Frederick Area Schools the best that we can make it. Consequently, I am looking forward to meeting many of you at the Open House on Aug. 6.

I want to thank Mr. Pashen, Cole Hinz, Heidi Marttila-Losure, and Krysti Mikkonen for all of their efforts in putting out this first edition of the Frederick FYI! They have been busy writing articles, formatting the layout, and gaining FYI advertising income, respectively.

School starts Aug. 18! Enjoy the rest of the summer!

What would you like to see on the buffet?

Bruce Johnson, new owner of Titan’s Restaurant in Frederick, says he appreciates the business of some of the regulars who are frequenting the restaurant. He would like some advice on what would bring people in to eat at the buffet on Wednesdays—he’s had some hits and some misses, he says.

Please take this survey and provide him with some ideas. You can either take it online (<https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/3DPRHFD>), or write down your buffet suggestions on a note and drop it off at the restaurant.

Don’t forget: Local businesses depend on local support!

Visit on Aug. 6

BY MRS. JESSICA
RINGGENBERG
Frederick Area Principal

PRINCIPAL
CORNER

Welcome back! There is something about backpacks loaded with new folders, crisp paper, and freshly sharpened pencils that gets my heart jumping in anticipation of the exciting things to come.

We have many new things to be excited about at the Frederick Area School. I want to invite you all to our annual Open House at 7 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 6, so you can see all of the recent building renovations, meet the new staff, and hear about some of the changes being made to the school.

We will have a brief informational meeting starting at 7:30 that night to let parents and students know about rules, policies changes, technology, and other information that you will find useful as you start off the new year.

Open House night is also a great time to pick up your back-to-school folder with all of the forms, paperwork and schedules/calendars needed at the start of each school year. You can even fill out the paperwork and return it to us that evening so you don’t have to worry about it over the Brown County Fair!

One final note about the Open House: This year, we are going to have a tissue box raffle. The school is always in need of tissues (Kleenex), so for every box of tissues you donate (outside of your school supply list), you will be entered into a drawing for a fun prize basket.

I hope you all enjoy the rest of your summer break, and I can’t wait to see you on Aug. 6, or Aug. 18 for the start of school.

ANDERSON: Quilting is in her plans

"In a small bank we have a chance to be personable and get to know our customers. It's easier to create a relationship with customers. We hear things in a small town like someone's been sick, and when we see them, we can ask how they've been."

It's likely those relationships are part of the reason behind the bank's longevity in the community.

The biggest change over the course of Anderson's career was the integration of computers. At first, there were large computers in the back office, and eventually technology made its way to the front-office positions too. The adjustment was easier on some than others. She fondly recalled a co-worker who was particularly frustrated with computers. When walking behind him to another part of the bank, Anderson saw him give one computer a good smack as he walked by, which gave Anderson a good chuckle.

Knowing what to do with her time won't be an issue for Anderson. In addition to having more time to spend with her aging mother, she hopes to do more sewing.

"I used to make quilts for people," she said. "I would like to do more of that, just for the fun of it."

Traveling is not very high on Anderson's list of ways to spend her spare time.

"I traveled a lot in the past," she said. "However, I do like bus trips. Those are always fun, and more day trips or short overnights, and that's all the travel I need."

Putting in 42 years was pretty easy because Anderson genuinely loved the people she worked with every day. She loved the bank Christmas parties and the various office smaller celebrations for birthdays and other special events. She'll miss that.

But she doesn't need to miss it yet. A party may have been held for the retirement of her full-time gig, but you can still find Anderson at the counter two days a week. Apparently you can't take the bank out of the banker.

RUMBLE on Main Street!

Parking was getting scarce and traffic got a little loud on Frederick's Main Street July 25 when Titans Restaurant was one of the stops on the On the Road for Wishes Poker Run and Charity Ride. The ride benefitted Make-A-Wish South Dakota, which grants the wishes of children diagnosed with life-threatening medical conditions.

OLD BUSINESS:

Utility report - Utility Manager Bakeberg attended a FEMA Mitigation Strategy meeting in Aberdeen at the Brown County Courthouse in June. The Mitigation Plan includes warning and forecasting, community planning, and infrastructure reinforcement in Brown County. They requested an updated review for the City of Frederick's Mitigation Goals and Actions. The last update was done in 2013. It was noted most of the goals and actions are already in place.

A letter from Rob Kittay of the DENR Water Program has been received today and needs review. It has some new water testing ways included.

Lagoon spraying is working well. WWTF sample showed 2 parts not meeting criteria, the lagoon will not be pumped before September.

The difference in gallons used and billed was reviewed again. Rich has been watching manholes for movement but has not seen any. WEB Water may be called to recalibrate transducer and SD Rural Water also, to help find any leaks.

AJ Micheals of the DENR inspected the Landfill in June as part of a city environmental agreement. The report has not come in but it was noted there is a dresser dumped in there ILLEGALLY and tree trunks left right inside the gate instead of properly placed. Another unethical resident drove through a private field and threw trash over the fence! It has ruined the ability to give out the key for unsupervised dumping in the Landfill. It would be nice to know the irresponsible party (ies).

Historical Society - No representation

Emma Burnham Library - No new business

Frederick Development Corporation - No representation

NEW BUSINESS:

A Quick Claim Deed from the Melva Glarum Family, for the Emma Burnham Library building and lot, was presented to the City of Frederick Board. It was decided to accept this generous offer from the Glarum Family with a motion by Osborn and seconded by Meyer. It will be very beneficial to keep the library in its present location. CROSS COUNTRY

'Every accomplishment starts with the decision to try,' coach says

By Brock Pashen
FASD Journalism Teacher

After Brooklyn and Michaela Podoll fell short of the state cross country meet last season, head coach Janelle Barondeau is planning on seeing them get there this fall.

Barondeau enters her 14th season guiding the Titan runners, and along with the individual goals she is expecting the girls' side to be more competitive as a team. Individually, the goal of every runner is to letter for the season, which can be accomplished by finishing in 20th or better at any meet.

Barondeau is expecting big things from the Podoll sisters and Heather Johnsen.

"The track season as a whole should help them immensely," she said. "They worked very hard last spring, and in a sport where strength and endurance are key, that extra season can pay big dividends."

Other returners for the season include Amber Eclipse and Tucker Delzer. Barondeau is also looking forward to some junior high athletes making an impact for the team this year.

One meet Barondeau is looking forward to is slated for Sept. 4 in Aberdeen. The Roe Granger will be a twilight race with lights brought in to illuminate the course. It is expected to be set up to be "spectator friendly."

For anyone thinking of joining cross country, Barondeau offered this thought: "Every accomplishment starts with the decision to try."

VOLLEYBALL

Optimism for a new season

BY BROCK PASHEN
FASD Journalism Teacher

After a 2014 campaign that brought double-digit victories for the Titans, head coach Holly Mueller has the squad's sights set on finishing over .500 this fall.

Mueller enters her fifth season at the volleyball helm, and her teams have improved in the wins column each year. This season, the Titans have the largest group of seniors since Mueller started coaching them. That is giving Mueller and assistant coach Traci Butler eight good reasons for optimism.

Seniors Chandler Ellwein and returning All-Conference performer MacKenzie Heilman have each started the past two seasons and are expected to be leaders on and off the court.

Keely Podoll emerged as the starting setter as a freshman and is looking to build on the chemistry developed last season.

"Keely will play a big part as she has one year under her belt as a setter and learned some things in that role," Mueller said.

"I also expect our back row to help out our front-row blockers. We went to a camp at Dakota State University, and our front row was doing a great job of getting deflections on the ball at the net, and this will help out our back row also."

Frederick seniors Chandler Ellwein, Heather Johnsen, MacKenzie Heilman, and MiKayla Forsting are ready to hit the court for one last season.

Other seniors include Taylor Fauth, and April Fauth. "I expect them all to play a role on the team." MiKayla Forsting, Heather Johnsen, Rachel Brandner,

2015 graduates leave positions to fill

BY BROCK PASHEN
FASD Journalism Teacher

Coach Marty Morlock enters his sixth year leading the Titans football program after a rare down season that saw the boys finish 3-5 on the gridiron. But with only three starters graduating last spring, Morlock is eager heading into fall camp.

The returners are "athletic kids who enjoy competing and are internally driven to get better," Morlock said.

One missing piece from last year's puzzle is All-State performer Logan Weisser. Replacing him will be no easy task, and Morlock is planning to use several players to fill that role.

"We are hoping to have a little more balance in our offense and not allow a team to key on one player," Morlock said. "The replacements for our graduated players have not been filled yet, and players will be fighting for positions during our first two weeks of practice."

With plenty of experience returning for the 2015 campaign, goals for the season are quite simple—"getting back into the playoffs and contending for the Lake Region Conference title again."

The first two areas to be addressed will be creating depth to rotate boys in and out during the game and replacing quarterback Kyle Kenser.

The boys of fall will be led by seniors Stephen Haas, Jonathan Sumption, Logan Heupel and Derek Weisser.

Accompanying Morlock on the staff will be Wyatt Sumption, Marcus Bartels, Seth Peterson and Trevor Van Tilburg.

Teeners look to finish strong

BY BROCK PASHEN
FASD Journalism Teacher

The Leola-Frederick Teeners are preparing for their round robin playoff tournament set for Saturday, Aug. 1, in Frederick. Claremont and Webster will join Leola-Frederick for the three-team district.

Head Coach Marty Morlock has his team at a 7-1 record with a tournament championship already this summer—the Matt Cox Tournament in Northville.

The three teams will vie for two spots in the state tournament Aug. 7-9 in Webster. Since Webster is hosting the state tournament, they have already qualified, so Leola-Frederick needs to finish higher than Claremont to qualify.

The first game Saturday is Frederick vs. Claremont at 1 p.m., followed by Claremont vs. Webster, then Frederick vs. Webster.
